1 Total maximum biweekly salary is $988.80. Payments in addition to the basic biweekly amount may include sums for Sunday premium pay, night differential, holiday work, and overtime, or any combination thereof.

2 The hours listed in this column represent a close approximation of the maximum number of hours for which overtime (including the value of overtime hours credited to compensatory time off computed at overtime pay rates) may be compensated; however, when total compensation includes pay for Sunday premium pay, night differential, or holiday work, appropriate reduction must be made in the hours shown.
